(11:00am) Zachary Covington, Piano

CALL to WORSHIP

Psalm 9:9-20 (NIV)

L: The Lord is a refuge for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble.

P: Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.

L: Sing the praises of the Lord, enthroned in Zion;

P: proclaim among the nations what he has done.

L: For he who avenges blood remembers;

P: he does not ignore the cries of the afflicted.

L: Lord, see how my enemies persecute me!
Have mercy and lift me up from the gates of death,

P: that I may declare your praises
in the gates of Daughter Zion, and there rejoice in your salvation.

L: The nations have fallen into the pit they have dug;

P: their feet are caught in the net they have hidden.

L: The Lord is known by his acts of justice;

P: the wicked are ensnared by the work of their hands.

L: The wicked go down to the realm of the dead,
all the nations that forget God.

P: But God will never forget the needy;
the hope of the afflicted will never perish.

L: Arise, Lord, do not let mortals triumph;
let the nations be judged in your presence.

P: Strike them with terror, Lord;
let the nations know they are only mortal.

OPENING PRAYER (in unison)

Dear Lord, how easy it is for me to lose sight of you in the travels of life. I go on as if I am on my own.
There are times when I must cry out, "O Lord, where are you?!"
Most often in those moments I find you with me already—I need only to have looked. Thank you, Jesus. Amen.

A READING FROM THE NEW TESTAMENT LETTERS

2 Corinthians 6:1-13 (NIV)

READYING OURSELVES for PRAYER

"Help me to spread your fragrance everywhere I go—let me preach you without preaching, not by words but by my example—by the catching force, the sympathetic influence of what I do, the evident fullness of the love my heart bears to you."
(a prayer of John Henry Newman's, 1800s England)

MUSICAL PRAYER MEDITATION

“Thy Word”

SHARING our JOYS and CONCERNS BEFORE GOD

WORK CAMP COMMISSIONING (8:30am in unison)

Pastor: You are here to say you are ready to help others in the name of Jesus.

Your youth leaders, Shelly Rhoades and Trish McIlwain, have prepared your mind with the thoughts of helping others.

The Holy Spirit has prepared you to have a heart for helping.

Members of this church stand with you ready to help you fulfill your mission. In this week you will give of yourselves in obedience to Christ to help others. You will also receive from others gifts of Holy Spirit teaching—wisdom for the journey of life that shall follow after this week.

People: You have grown in this church learning the ways of God, of Christ, and of Spirit. We have endeavored to show you by our life example and by our heart prayers ways of becoming followers of Jesus. We believe, hope, and pray that you are now ready to go on this week's journey.

Pastor: Are you ready to love God and to love God's people?

Are you ready to learn more about yourself and the world around you?

(The work team members respond.)

Pastor: Let us then pray for you.

PASTORAL and LORD'S PRAYER (in unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name!

Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;

and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil, for thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.

Amen.
